

Rev. Dr. David E. Moore, Jr.

Pastor Moore is a man that seeks God in all of his actions. A God-fearing man and one full of purpose, Pastor Moore leads with an ultra-bright light that shines vibrantly displaying the Christ within him.

Since the age of 9, he has been proclaiming God's word to a lost and dying world. Using a message of compassion showing that while God is one who should be feared, He loves and cares for all of His creations. In his first pastoral assignment, he faithfully led the St. Anna Missionary Baptist Church from 2001-2013. During his tenure, St. Anna grew physically and spiritually. He engaged in several projects while there, such as the church pulpit being completely remodeled and media ministry developed. Additionally, the church membership grew substantially.

In 2008, he embarked on an endeavor that many found unusual. With the direction of God, he organized a group of young people, and founded Divine Anointing Church International of Greenville, NC. DACI (as it is faithfully called) has been able to develop into a holistic ministry by being able to feed the hungry, clothe the naked, provide shelter to the homeless, and is working to fulfill its mission of ".....turning the world upside down and being God centered." In its seven-year existence and under his leadership of DACI program, a bi-weekly food bank, and multiple departments to serve God's people in a manner that is most effective to them.

In 2011, Pastor Moore graduated with honors with his undergraduate degree in Religion and Philosophy from the Historic Shaw University of Raleigh, NC. While attending Shaw University, he was inducted into the Alpha Chi honor society and served two terms as SGA President. He also holds a Master of Divinity from Shaw University. Most recently in 2021, he was awarded the Doctor of Divinity, Honoris Causa, from Roanoke Theological Seminary

He was installed as Pastor of Indian Woods Missionary Baptist Church on December 14, 2015. During his tenure at IWBC, he has proven to be an anointed man of God. Under his leadership several ministries have been reactivated. He performed one of the largest baptism ceremonies (18) held in recent years and conducted several Christian Education workshops. He was the speaker at the General Baptist State Convention's opening session, started Saturday Bible Studies to accommodate the seniors, and began the Men's Mentoring Ministry. His latest accomplish was to be elected as Moderator of the West Roanoke Missionary Baptist Association, Inc., of which Indian Woods has been a member for over 30 years. He also serves on the Executive Board and as the Moderator of Moderators for the General Baptist State Convention of North Carolina.

Pastor Moore is married to the former Serisa Sutton, who serves beside him in the Gospel Ministry. They have two children, Davon and Shakira, and one precious granddaughter, Shaniya.
